Trip Planning Deposit Agreement

Egypt with Hart (hereinafter “Egypt with Hart”, “we”, “us”, “our” is a travel advisor specializing in travel to Egypt. We are proud to bring our clients (hereinafter “traveler”, “you”) this distinctive travel experience. Planning this unique form of custom travel takes enormous time and effort. Our travel advisors spend hours crafting the perfect trip for you. Therefore, we charge a non-refundable planning deposit which covers time in consultation, research, pricing, and support before, during and after travel. This deposit is payable whether or not you make a final booking with us. If you do make a booking, this deposit will go towards the cost of your trip. The planning deposit is $300.

The following outlines the services you will receive for our planning efforts:

- Communications with the travel advisor via email and scheduled calls prior to travel (the travel advisor will respond to emails within 2 business days)
- Consultant’s deep knowledge of the area, history, culture, and Arabic language
- Customized Itinerary design for your trip
- Unlimited edits to your itinerary until the first deposit

Once the itinerary is agreed upon, we will send the full price of the trip, full travel terms and conditions, and an invoice for the next deposit, to move forward into booking. By signing below, you are agreeing to pay the planning deposit and you understand that this deposit is non-refundable, even if you do not finalize your booking with Egypt with Hart. Once you make a booking you understand that the planning deposit will go towards the price of the trip. If you do not agree with these terms and conditions, you must not pay the planning deposit or use our services.
